And in his spare time...

Jonathan enjoys spending time with his family, boating and canoeing. He still aspires to trek in the Himalayas and travel in Japan.

Jonathan is Managing Director of Harris Freidman and is a specialist lawyer with over 30 years business experience. His skill is to offer practical legal solutions to his clients. He won't waste your time or money.

His clients work in a wide range of industries including IT, professional services, dental, retailing, fashion, healthcare, property, online businesses, internet services and transport.

Jonathan is a trusted advisor to numerous families, business entrepreneurs and start ups. He also helps families to plan and document the transfer of family assets and pass control of their businesses and companies while protecting the core assets.

Jonathan has a special interest and well known expertise helping families who have a vulnerable or disabled family member to plan ahead. He regularly speaks on estate planning to disability groups, including Cerebral Palsy Australia, Down Syndrome Australia, The Royal Institute for Deaf and Blind Children, Aspect (Autism Spectrum Australia) and local Councils. He is Chairman of Woodbury School.

Recent transactions:

Acted on the sale of a digital media business for $20m to a multinational buyer (2015).
