And in her spare time...

Charlene likes travelling and spending time with family and friends.

Charlene advises clients in the areas of commercial law and franchising.

She is experienced in advising clients on a full range of commercial and estate planning matters including sale and purchase of businesses, contractor and supply agreements, licensing and distribution agreements, shareholder agreements, options, deeds, loans, leases and wills.

Charlene provides practical, cost effective advice and likes to work closely with her clients to understand their needs and goals to enable her to provide excellent, responsive solutions.

Recent highlights include:

Acting for different franchisees advising on their purchase into a well known franchise brand.

Advising on and drafting special disability trusts for clients, including discussions with Centrelink in establishing the trusts.

Drafting buy sell agreement for a family company to outline each shareholders rights and obligations on the death or permanent disablement of a shareholder.

Drafting Wills and other estate planning documents for a client incorporating asset protection strategies for their spouse and children.
