LAWYERS

Eleni Paraskevopoulos, Lawyer

Eleni was awarded a Diploma in Law after having completed her studies through the Legal Profession Admission Board. During her studies Eleni was awarded the Lexis Nexis Prize for 1st place in Law of Associations.

She gained a hands on approach to legal practice with four years pre-admission experience in city firms. She first became familiar with the area of Property, Wills & Estates before pursuing her passion in Family Law.

Eleni has since practiced in various areas of law and has broad experience in Conveyancing, Dust Diseases Litigation and Wills, Probate & Administration of Estates. In addition, Eleni was involved in the lengthy preparation, litigation and court attendance of an 8 week malicious prosecution trial in the Supreme Court.

Eleni has had extensive interaction with clients, solicitors, barristers and expert witnesses. She maintained her interest in Family Law and

She maintained an interest in family law and now practises in both Commercial and Family Law with a particular interest in children's matters.

Eleni strongly believes in forming a good relationship with her clients and ensuring that they feel comfortable to communicate during one of the most difficult times of their life. Her commercial experience allows her to maintain a clear perspective of the matter, outline the issues and provide practical advice and solutions to resolve disputes between parties before they require litigation.
